

ARISE CONSERVATION FELLOWSHIP 2026

'Arul' Research Initiative for Species and Ecosystem (ARISE)

Supporting Young Researchers for the Conservation of Threatened and Endemic Species

Are you a Masters student in Tamil Nadu researching about biodiversity and conservation?

What we are looking for?

- 6-month dissertation/research project
- Must be currently enrolled in a Masters degree in a recognised academic institution in Tamil Nadu
- Project can be located anywhere in India
- Closely related to biodiversity or conservation

Priority Research Areas

- Threatened, endemic, or lesser-known species
- Habitat loss, pollution, and human-related threats.
- Community-based conservation, Indigenous knowledge, and citizen science and more.

* Apply with Applicant/Academic/Supervisor details, research proposal, supporting documents, and declaration.

Apply Before

30th
SEPTEMBER
2026

💰 Grant Support: Up to ₹60,000

🕒 Project Duration: 6 Months

🏆 Up to 5 Fellows will be selected

Apply Now →

Contact

✉ arise@arulagam.org

For more info

🌐 www.arulagam.org

